"Walk to Remember"

In memory of our beloved children and loved ones

Saturday, September 14, 2019

A reflective and peaceful walk at your own pace followed by a short remembrance ceremony, balloon release, lunch and quilt drawing.

Our Wenatchee Valley Chapter "Walk To Remember" is a two mile walk (shorter course available) open to everyone who wants to join "Hands and Hearts" in remembering our children and loved ones who have died too soon. Plan to participate with family, friends, and colleagues to make the Walk a beautiful event. We had a wonderful turnout at the Walk last year. For information, call Carol at 509-860-3620 or Elaine at 509-663-6727.

TCF Wenatchee Valley is pleased to announce our continued growth with the addition of two new Support Groups: Infant Loss and our Survivors of Suicide Loss. Please visit our website at: <http://slsg.tcfwenatcheevalley.org> for details and meeting times.

Like last year, we have a stunning hand-made queen size quilt that is titled: A Trip Around the World It was designed and donated by Debbie Jones, the 2016 Manson Apple Blossom Featured Quilter who is a member of the Quilt Guild, and one of our Mothers. Assisting her was Shanie Veenendaal who did all the long-arm quilting.

A special thank you to both of them.
